

THE FRANCOPHONE INDIAN OCEAN

THE 2ND ANNUAL WEIDER HISTORY CONFERENCE

Winthrop-King Institute for Contemporary
French and Francophone Studies

Co-sponsored by the Department of History's Institute on Napoleon & the French Revolution and the Winthrop-King Institute for Contemporary French & Francophone Studies, with the generous support of the Weider Foundation

Commentators: Richard Allen, Framingham State University; Edward Alpers, UCLA; Sue Peabody, Washington State University Vancouver

Presenters: Danna Agmon, Virginia Tech University; Kit Heintzman, Harvard University; Jane Hooper, George Mason University; Nathan Marvin, Johns Hopkins University; Laurie Wood, Florida State University – organizer and host

Chair: Rafe Blaufarb, Florida State University

Schedule:

- 9h-9h15
- Introduction by organizer (Wood)
- 9h15-11h15:
Session 1
- “The Nayiniyappa Affair” (Danna Agmon)
 - “The 1849 Attack on Nosy Be: Questions of Mobility, Commerce, & Slavery” (Jane Hooper)
 - Comment 1-2 (Ned Alpers)
 - Discussion
- 11h15-12h45
Break
- 13h-15h: Session 2
- “Le Débris de Madagascar: Whiteness and Myth on Île Bourbon in the Eighteenth Century” (Nathan Marvin)
 - “Out of Office” (Kit Heintzman)
 - Comment 3-4 (Richard Allen)
 - Discussion
- 15h-15h30
Pause café
- 15h30-17h30:
Session 3
- “Between “Île Deserte” and “Île de France””(Laurie Wood)
 - Comment 5 (Sue Peabody)
 - Discussion & journée conclusions

8 April 2016 Longmire Hall Room 204